

The document below is used by children in class to refer to in order to help them learn the correct terminology for grammar and punctuation and to prompt them to use a range of grammar and punctuation in their writing.

Punctuation

CAPITALS	cat A pril E ngland sad T im M onday E ssex
	For proper nouns, proper pronouns and titles
.	A sentence is a complete statement. Use when the statement is complete “ ”	"66,99, new speaker, new line!" sang Mildred.
()	Inverted commas to be used when someone is speaking directly or for quotations
'	He + will = he'll	Charlie's watch /The kid's games (regular plural) boys' ball (irregular plural)
	Omission for contraction	Possession: plural and singular
!	STOP! Command	I can't wait! Exclamation
?	Do you want another one? Use at the end of statements which uses a question word and needs an answer
,	In the morning, he bought a grey coat, a pair of gloves and a woolly hat. Commas for lists, for extra information when using an adverbial phrase or subordinating clause
Paragraph	Sentences grouped together to develop a single idea or theme

? Question Words ?

Ask yourself and others questions to learn more and get more ideas

Who What Where How When Which Why Can If Do Will Would Could Does Did Shall Were Should Was Is Are Might Has Have

Singular and Plural

church	churches
kiss	kisses
push	pushes
box	boxes
leaf	leaves
wife	wives
bunny	bunnies
potato	potatoes

Conjunctions

Co-ordinating conjunctions	and, but, so, for, nor Link 2 independent clauses together
Subordinating conjunction	when, if, that, because Gives more information about a sentence but can't stand alone
Time conjunction	after, before, prior, at Show order or place in time
Cause conjunction	as, because, therefore, so
	How or why something Happened
Preposition conjunction	before, since Prepositions which link a clause

Prefix	Suffix
un, pre, dis	ing, ed, est, er

Sentence Starters

Make the sentences interesting

Subordinating conjunction	When, If, That
Time conjunction	Prior, After
Adverb of time	At, On
Adverb of frequency	Often, Sometimes
Adverb of manner	Quietly, Sharply
Adverb of place	Here, Nowhere
Adverb of intensity	Really, Very
Adverb of purpose	So, In order
Preposition	Under, Behind
Noun/Pronoun	Tim/I, We, They
Adjective	Fierce, Small
Determiners	These, Little, Our
Question word	Who, Might
Possessive pronoun	Her, My

VOWELS

an elephant in orange underwear

