Some of the key language we will be using includes: tens, ones, number, value and digit.

Literacy:

In Literacy this week we will be continuing to learn about the two stories 'Cottonwool Colin' and 'Sister for Sale'. We will be deepening our understanding of the stories by increasing our familiarity with the texts. We will be discussing how two characters from the same story can feel differently about the same event. Furthermore, we will be doing role play and considering the reasons behind a character's actions. We will be developing our awareness of dialogue and narrative and the need for storytellers to use different 'voices' to sustain the listeners' interest. Finally, we will be writing a letter to an agony aunt from the perspective of Tom from 'Sister for Sale'.
